

ABSTRACT

A single dosage medication formulation has a beta-adrenergic blocker and a cholesterol lowering agent that is a statin combined in a single oral formulation for treatment of and reducing the risk of cardiovascular disease to enhance simplicity, 5 cost reduction, convenience, and patient compliance with the use of these agents.